

We have the perfect class to meet your needs.

The Hiroshima YMCA provides Japanese language instruction for foreigners with contract classes for organizations and private lessons for individuals.

Contract Classes

We offer classes tailored to meet the Japanese language education needs of any organization, from corporations and government agencies with foreign employees and trainees to public and private schools with students from abroad.

Lessons for Foreign Employees and Trainees

We provide the option of having a Japanese education professional dispatched to your company or having classes held at our school whenever is the most convenient for you, including after work hours and training sessions or even on days off.

Lessons for Foreign Students

Students can participate in Japanese Language Course classes at our school, or we can send an instructor to teach at yours.

*The fees for school dispatch lessons and general dispatch lessons are different. Feel free to contact us for more details.

Private Lessons

We provide one-on-one private lessons for foreigners who need to communicate in Japanese in their everyday lives, whether in Japan for travel, short-term study, or on long-term stays (such as for marriage.)

- Study at the time that best fits your schedule.
- Choose a curriculum that meets your specific needs.
- Lessons are taught by qualified Japanese language teachers.
